Which are of Interest to
Our People.

SCUDDER V. COLOR.

Supreme Court, United States October 30, 1899.

FAILURE TO RAISE A FEDERAL QUESTION UNTIL AFTER A CASE HAS BEEN FINALLY DECIDED IN THE HIGHEST STATE COURT, WILL PRECLUDE THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES FROM REVIEWING THE CASE.

The point decided appears from the opinion of the court.

The court says:

No mention of the constitution of the United States, or of any provision thereof, by the plaintiff in error, or by the court, is to be found at any stage of the case while it was pending in the courts of the State of New York; and it is impossible, upon this record to avoid the conclusion that it never occurred to the plaintiff in error to raise a Federal question until after the case had been finally decided against him in the highest court of the State.

In order to give this court jurisdiction of a writ of error to review a judgment which the highest court of a state has rendered in favor of the validity of a statute of, or an authority exercised under a state, the validity of the statute or authority must have been "drawn in question" on the ground of their being repugnant to the constitution, law, or treaties of the United States.

When no such ground has been presented to or considered by the court of the state, it cannot be said that those courts have disregarded the constitution of the United States, and this court has no jurisdiction.

Dismissed.

BIRD V. GILLIAM.

Supreme Court of North Carolina October 17, 1899.

WHERE ONE BUYS LAND AFTER A JUDGMENT OF THE SUPREME COURT AFFECTING IT, AND BEFORE THE END OF THE TIME ALLOWED FOR A REHEARING, HE TAKES IT SUBJECT TO THE FURTHER REVIEW BY THE COURT OF ITS JUDGMENT, ON THE REHEARING.

The case appears from the opinion of the court.

The court says:

When this case was first heard it was decided in favor of the plaintiff. On rehearing this judgment was reversed. After the first judgment of this court and before the expiration of the time within which the application for rehearing could be filed, the plaintiff sold the land to the petitioners. Upon the going down of the certificate of the last opinion, the petitioners filed an affidavit that they had purchased for value and without notice, and asked to be let in to assert their rights. The motion was denied. In a proper case additional parties can be made, even after judgment, but certainly it is useless when the grounds fully appear, and can be adjudicated upon the motion, for none of their allegations are denied. Indeed, it appears the petitioners took their deed before the petition to rehear was filed, and therefore without notice by law of the fact that the rehearing could be applied for at any time till after the expiration of the first 20 days of the next term of the supreme court, and took the rights of the plaintiff—no more, which were subject to further review by a rehearing. No entry of his pendens under Code, sec. 229, is required in any case when the action is in the county where the land lies. A party recovers a tract of land in the superior court. It is final, unless appealed from, but the defendant has 10 days after the adjournment of court in which to appeal. One who, relying upon the judgment of the superior court, takes a conveyance from the successful party before the expiration of the 10 days, takes it subject to the right of appeal and of the judgment which may be entered therein, and he is conclusively fixed with notice of the litigation. If a judgment is entered in this court in certain cases, a writ of error may be sued out to the United States supreme court in two years. The assignment of the judgment in such case takes subject to the action of the higher tribunal. A rehearing by this court is in the nature of an appeal from this court to itself. The Code (section 966) prescribes that it may be entered at any time before the expiration of the first 20 days of the next succeeding term. While it has been held that under the present constitution the legislature cannot prescribe rules of practice for this court, yet this court, under the power to prescribe and regulate its own methods of procedure and practice, has copied, almost verbatim, the provisions of Code, sec. 966, in its rule 52. It was the petitioners' own fault that they took a conveyance of the plaintiff's recovery before the expiration of the period within which an application to rehear could be filed. If, by so doing, the rights of petitioners to rehear could be defeated, the relief intended to be given by such reviews of the action of the court would be almost, if not altogether, denied by the anticipatory promptness of any party who might be affected by such reviews. It can make no difference that petitions to rehear are now, like appeals from the superior court formerly were, matters of grant, and not of right. The effect upon the right of all parties when granted is the same. No error.

THE CHARITY BALL.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY PEOPLE ENJOYED IT LAST NIGHT.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments planned for the benefit of the rebuilding fund for St. Vincent's hospital was the Charity Ball given last night at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point Comfort. There were about one hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen present, and many handsome toilets worn by the ladies.

The Norfolk attendants went to Old Point on the steamer Mobjack, which left Norfolk at 8 o'clock, and reached Old Point at 9 o'clock. The steamer started on the return trip at midnight. There were among the dancers many people from various States, who chanced to be guests of the hotel, and a number of officers from Fort Monroe.

THE OPENING CONCERT.

One of the pleasantest features of the evening was the concert in the parlors of the hotel, from 8 to 11 p. m., by the Fourth U. S. Artillery Band from the Fort. This splendid band carried out in a faultless manner the following choice program:

March—"Impecunious Don's"..... Kerry Mills
Overture—"Summer Night's Dream"..... Suppe
Selection—"Gay Parisienne"..... Caryll
Stella Polka—"Cornet solo by God-frey Buglione"..... Hall
Grand Selection—"I Due Foscari, Verdi"..... Dance Caprice—"Little Egypt"..... Bergenholz
Grand Selection—"Les Huguenots"..... Herman

DANCING UNTIL MIDNIGHT.

Dancing began in the beautiful ball room of the Chamberlin at 9:30 o'clock and continued until midnight. The music was furnished by the fine Hotel Chamberlin Orchestra, A. Masino, conductor. The dance program was as follows:

Two-Step—"Impecunious Davis"..... K. Mills
Waltz—"The First View"..... Max Witt
Two-Step—"A Rag-Time Sideshow"..... G. Rosey
Waltz—"Glory Waltzes"..... John F. Dunn
Two-Step—"Aunt Mandy's Wedding"..... W. H. Tyers
Waltz—"Colonial Girl"..... Chas. Van Baar
Two-Step—"Smoky Mokes"..... Abe Holtzmann
Waltz—"Memories of Spain"..... F. A. Silberberg
Two-Step—"Hands Across the Sea"..... Sousa

INTERMISSION.

Waltz—"Florentine Waltz"..... F. R. Gillis
Two-Step—"Twenty-Second Regiment"..... V. Herbert
Waltz—"Love's Melody"..... Chas. F. North
Two-Step—"Topsy in Town"..... Warner Crosby
Waltz—"Ange D'amour"..... Waldenfel
Two-Step—"Uncle Remus"..... E. F. Hoghen
Waltz—"Vision D'amour"..... Delbrinck
Two-Step—"Runaway Girl"..... Caryll
Waltz—"Wine, Woman and Song"..... F. Strauss
"Home, Sweet Home."

A Bad Scare.

An accident occurred on the 5 o'clock Ocean View train last night that caused a panic for a short time in the rear car. The train had passed Ocean View and was en route to Willoughby Spit, when the lights suddenly went out. There was a crash of falling glass and three loud reports like shots from a Winchester rifle at close range.

Everyone in the car thought the train had been fired into by robbers, and the twenty passengers threw themselves to the floor to escape flying bullets, if possible. In a moment the conductor discovered that the trolley rod had been broken in some way. This was the cause of the loud reports, and a piece of flying steel about a foot long was what had crashed through a transom window and fallen in the car, narrowly missing one of the passengers. After a brief delay the train moved on.

THE JURY RAISED.

CAPT. FRENCH HAS THE TUG UP AT BERKLEY FOR REPAIRS.

Readers of the Virginian-Pilot will remember the story of the sinking of the Courtland Lumber Company's tug Maggie J. French last Saturday about 4:30 a. m. off the Rip-Raps.

Captain Henry French, of Berkley, was given the job of raising her, and began work Sunday morning. He used in his work his two derricks, a schooner with a derrick, and a dredging machine with a derrick. The tug was raised slowly with the dredging machine and the other to the schooner derrick. The tug French then pulled them all slowly to Berkley, where they now lie. The boats reached Berkley about midnight. The Jory lost her smokestack, pilot house, main house and life boat in the collision with the tug Volunteer's tow line.

Phonograph Concert Last Night.

The Phonograph Concert, under the direction of Mr. A. W. Deans, given in the Sunday school room of Cumberland Street Church, last evening for benefit of the Young Ladies' Society, was a grand success. The renditions were clear and distinct and of a pleasing variety. The inclement weather kept a rare treat.

Funeral of Mrs. Folles.

The obsequies of Mrs. Ansonette Folles, wife of Mr. William F. Folles, who departed this life at her home, No. 465 Sheldon avenue, Brambleton Ward, Monday, were held from the Queen Street M. E. Church at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. S. C. Hatcher, the pastor, assisted by Rev. Lloyd Williams. The interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

AMUSEMENTS.

GEORGIA MINSTRELS TO-NIGHT.

Richards & Pringle's—Rusco & Holland's Big Minstrel Festival, which is at the Academy this evening, does not cater to one part of the house alone, their performance is to please the masses, and from the reports of the crowded houses this organization is drawing, they seem to catch the public fancy. One thing can be said of Messrs. Rusco & Holland is that they have the knack of putting together a minstrel show that has no tiresome waltz or act; everything goes with a hurry and excitement. Prices: 50, 75c. and $1.

"IN PARADISE."

"In Paradise," which will be seen at the Academy next Monday, matinee and night, is claimed to be the real thing in the Parisian comedy line. The lines are bright and witty, and the situations laughable and novel. The play may be a trifle risqué, according to the light one may view it in; but then it springs from an innocent motive and only goes to prove what ridiculous dilemmas people can get themselves into when they enter an atmosphere they have heard talked of, but never breathed; seen visions of in dreams, but never realized.

HENSHAW & TEN BROECK.

Henshaw & Ten Broeck will be at the Academy next Monday, matinee and night, presenting their funny farce comedy, entitled "Dodge's Trip to New York." It is the same success as of old. If it were different John E. Henshaw would not be playing it. He is not on earth to make people think, but to make them laugh, and he does that. Miss Ten Broeck's mission in life is the same. It is this fact that has made these comedy artists such favorites in New York. People want to laugh; Henshaw and Ten Broeck had all New York laughing during their stay at the Casino and the New York, and in their present tour they will make all people everywhere laugh, for in "Dodge's Trip to New York" they have a laugh-provoking vehicle.

C. & O. Earnings.

The gross earnings of the Chesapeake and Ohio for the third quarter of November, 1899, were $268,368.95; for the same period, 1898, $243,989.28; an increase of $24,379.67.

KILLED BY PHROSTINATION.

Nervous and chronic diseases and weaknesses should not be neglected. You may not suffer any pain and you may not notice any inconvenience, except a weak, exhausted and tired out feeling and frequent attacks of the blues. You may be sure that if you are not getting better you are getting worse. Such diseases never remain at a standstill. If neglected, they finally take some acute and fatal form. All such sufferers should consult Dr. Greene, personally or by letter, at his office, 25 West 14th street, New York City. He is the discoverer of that great remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura, and is the leading specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and is specially desirous of examining cases which ordinary physicians have failed to cure. Dr. Greene makes no charge for consultation and advice, and if you are unable to call at his office write to him describing your case.
